

Music Industry Post-Covid with Scott LeGere

MOMF 2024 Workshop Series (Free Events)

How marketing, fan engagement, & monetization are continuing to shift.

Scott takes a look at the current state of the music industry, current trends, and where we're headed post-covid.

Scott has played roles in ownership, operation, and strategic direction of academic institutions, independent record labels, music and education non-profits, and commercial production companies. He has engineered Grammy nominated albums, produced award winning multimedia content for major brands, and lectured nationally at conferences and events. In April 2023, he was named the "Dr. Dwayne Orr Teacher of the Year" at Minnesota State Mankato.
